

Three years ago these same artists had a combined exhibit in the Clubhouse Gallery that no doubt is still a fine memory for those who had the good fortune to see it. Our appetites are whetted for another show that brings together and contrasts the massiveness and earthy tones and materials of Ruth's sculptures with the detail and brilliant color of Gerald Boyd's paintings and pastel drawings. The work of each artist is a foil for the other's, bringing them into sharper focus.

Nationally recognized sculptor Ruth has not only exhibited her works at Lupin in the past - she has very generously contributed three of them to the club - "The Sun-bathers," the large, copper-covered composition on the Crescent Lawn between the Office and the Clubhouse; "Blithe Spirits," the burnished elmwood dancing figures in the corner of the Clubhouse Restaurant; and "Garden of Eden," the ten and a half foot-tall column carved from a fallen Lupin oak tree and now standing across from the counter in the Restaurant. If you haven't met the maker of these pieces that have added so much to Lupin's character and beauty, this is your chance to meet her and to view more of her works.

Gerald Boyd, a realist painter who uses oil, water color and pastel mediums, says that his heroes have always been the early illustrators, such as N.C. Wyeth and Norman Rockwell. For many years Gerald painted billboards along the Bay Area's freeways. The paintings often contained huge portrait heads, including one that was 30 feet tall! At the same time he continued his study with nationally known artists, and became a consistent award winner in juried art shows throughout Northern California. His paintings are in a number of private collections in the USA.

Dinner & Movie: "Harry Potter & the Chamber of Secrets" or Dinner/Games

The timing is just right to have dinner in the Clubhouse Restaurant with Lupin friends between 6 and 8 pm, then either stay for Game Night/Social Time, from 8 to 10 pm, or go to Chez La Ronde to see the film that begins at 8:30 pm. See April Movies for a description.

Sunday, April 13 • All Day Clubhouse Listening Music

For a pleasant and rather lazy day, it's hard to beat hanging out at the Clubhouse, listening to soft music, chatting with people, having occasional snacks, and perhaps putting a puzzle together or playing some games. (There are puzzles and games there, but - if you want to play cards and be sure you're playing with a full deck - you'd better bring your own.)

Camera Club/Camera Day

Everyone is welcome to come to the monthly meetings of the Camera Club on the second Sunday each month. They are held in Chez La Ronde at 1 pm. Those wishing to take photos at Lupin (only okay on days when Camera Club meets) must be members of Camera Club and must have permission from people to be photographed, plus parental permission for children. Do stop by Chez La Ronde to view the Camera Club's Showcase. The current photo topic is "Reflections."

Saturday, April 19 • Afternoon

Egg Coloring Workshop with Irene

Today everyone, regardless of age, gets a chance to help the Easter Bunny by coloring and decorating Easter eggs. The fun starts at 2 pm on the Clubhouse Lawn.
